TRY IT!

THEY SAY.

Editor Cooper had a dream.

He dreamed he had an eighteen hundred dollar job.

After his quiet nap in the early morning, after he had awaken from his slumber, he said it was but a dream.

Some dreams are pleasant, others disturb the mind.

Col. Perkins has gone to Ohio.

He will hear sweet news on the morning of the 3rd.

Mark Hanna will carry Ohio.

"The republican party is the ship all else is the sea."

In union there is strength.

The colored vote in Maryland may be divided, but there is still hope.

Why should not Senator Hanna be returned to the Senate.

Sweet dreams and hopes some times ease the mind.

Be truthful in all things and false in none.

Miss Merritt's appointment is a vindication of the merit system.

The blow almost killed father.

Ex-Senator John P. Green is in Urbana.

He is making great speeches.

President McKinley is treating the negro right.

Why should we all complain if we fail to get in office.

Let the boys stand by the old ship.

Be truthful and sincere in all things.

Do you wish to be strong?

Help those who help you.

Judge Kimball will be retired.

Be useful citizens and nothing more.

Do your duty and nothing more can be expected.

If you don't know it all say so.

Two-thirds of the teachers are anxious to leave Mrs. Terrell's division.

The High and Normal school committee will have a new acquisition.

Commissioner Ross is the negro's friend.

Give the High school a reorganization.

Trustee Harries is an active member.

Popular sentiment is in favor of Miss Freeman.

Let the colored trustees stand firm.

No one man or woman will run the colored schools

The BEE is the people's paper.

The greatest American journalist is dead.

Charles A. Dana is no more.

He had no superiors and a few equals.

Be what you seem to be and nothing more.

"Give us liberty or give us death"

The Colored American had two very suggestive cartoons last week.

The colored man will some day be on top.

Don't forget that you owe a duty to your friends.

Read The BEE the people's paper.

Don't be alarmed The BEE is the coming journal of the race.

An independent press is a great press.

Editor Smith of the Cleveland Gazette should fall in line.

He should not be such a bad boy.

If Editor Smith knew what he has lost he would have joined the party long ago.

You should always remain in the party to kick.

Never despair, while you have life.

Your first duty is to your home.

He is a knave who deserts his friends.

BRUCE STILL IN THE WEST—IMMENSE CROWDS MEET HIM.

Senator Bruce, since his arrival in Ohio has spoken to great crowds at Oberlin, Akron, Portsmouth, Ironton, Delaware and Fostoria. At all of these places big meetings were held. At Portsmouth he was met at the depot by the B. K. Bruce club, which was organized three years ago and contains 250 members all voteas, and escorted him to his hotel. After supper the Garfield club (a white organization) marched up to pay their respects and conducted him to the hall, where press dispatches states that he made a splendid impression. Mr. Bruce's great speech at Oberlin and Akron, which the papers state, although he has campaigned in the state for 20 years, was perhaps, the finest effort he ever made it seems to have so advertised him that the people wherever he goes are anxious to hear him.

He left here in better trim than ever before, and his speeches could not but please the people. Governor Bushnell at some points split off from him in order to fill other engagements, but will rejoin him Saturday night at Urbana, where the effort is being made to make it the grandest ever held there. This is the town that has suddenly become famous, and much bad feeling still exists.

Mr. Bruce had prepared a special speech for this place, in connection with his financial discussion. Our dispatches tell that although there has been much uncertainty about the colored voters in certain sections, it is believed that wherever the Senator has spoken much good has been done, for already they are rapidly falling in line and closing up their ranks. Dates have been arranged for Mr. Bruce that will keep him up to election; winding up perhaps, with a great meeting at Cincinnati. The BEE keeps in close touch with this splendid campaign Mr. Bruce is making and will keep its readers fully informed.

POLITICS IN MARYLAND.

If the colored republicans would stop to consider, they will be confronted with facts that no doubt would be convincing to them that it is necessary for the good of the masses, to support the republican ticket in the State of Maryland. Under democratic rule in the State the colored republicans received no recognition whatever, and indeed they were not treated with common decency. Since the republican party has been in power in the State, colored men have received some recognition, which they did not heretofore receive. THE BEE asks this question: will it pay the colored republicans in the State to support the democratic party? If it will pay, to what extent? The mere failure of the republican managers to put certain men on the ticket, is that any evidence that if the party wins, they will not receive recognition? The republicans will carry the State, and the dissatisfied colored voters, or those who are falsely instructing the masses, will realize their folly.

The fight in Ohio is getting hotter and hotter, but, mark Hanna.

OUR NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN.

In every State in this Union, the republican party has a national committeeman, and where there are no republican Senators or representatives, the national committeeman is consulted about appointments, and, indeed, he is permitted, to a great extent, to name such men who should be appointed.

Col. M. M. Parker, the national committeeman for the District of Columbia, the recognized head of the republican party in this city, should be given the same privilege. There is no man in this city who has done more to aid the party financially than Col. Parker. It is true there are a few men in the city who are opposed to him, but they are so insignificant that their opposition amounts to but a little.

Col Parker will be one of the next delegates from this city to the next republican convention, and every day he is growing more popular in the estimation of the republicans in this country, and especially the District of Columbia where his services have been n such demand.

If raping in the District of Columbia was made a capital offense there would not be so much of it.

Some time after next month, there will be a few changes made in the several departments.

DISTRICT REPUBLICANS.

There may be cause for complaint on the part of the District republicans, because they are not receiving any recognition in the District government. We are of the opinion that after the election there will be some radical changes made. These changes are looked for, anyway, although they may not come.

THE LAST LAUGH IS THE BEST.

For the benefit of The Colored American and its democratic correspondent, J. W. Thompson of the Government Printing Office, the editor of The BEE begs leave to say that he is not hunting for a $66 and 75 cents a month job nor would he accept one if it were offered him. For the information of the above, put this in your pipe and smoke it. "He laughs best who laughs last." A hint to the wise is sufficient.

A man who takes a $66.75 job is hard up. It is a long ways off from an eighteen hundred dollar job. There are others just like him.

The colored printers who were dismissed from the Government Printing Office, by negro democratic influence will be reinstated.

Mr. J W. Thompson of the democratic Colored American will find out that he will be weighed in the balances and found wanting. Mark The BEE's prediction.

The complaint of citizens of Washington relative to the inconvenience children are put to; should receive consideration at the hands of the school authorities.

There may be some excuse offered by Mrs. Terrell that may excuse her, notwithstanding the facts in the case. It is quite evident that Miss Bush was not the only lady who was anxious to leave Mrs. Terrell's division. Certainly all these teachers cannot be in the wrong. The exodus of teachers from her division is alarming and should call forth an investigation by Commissoner Ross. Almost every teacher in her division with but few exceptions will leave if an opportunity ever presents itself.

The President is certainly doing his duty.

The Editor of THE BEE is not in need of a $66.75 job.

A man who claims to be editing a great colored journal and will accept a place on the dump at $66.75, is greatly in need of a job.

DR. WILLIAM'S REPORT.

The report of Dr. Daniel H. Williams of the Freedmen's Hospital, has been submitted to the Secretary of the Interior. The doctor doesn't fail to pay his respects to those who endeavored to place the hospital under an incorporated body. Here is what he says:

As already stated, the hospital is a national institution, and such should be kept under the control of national officers, who are responsible directly to the National Government, and should not be put under the authority of private parties, whether masquerading under the guise of a corporation or openly asserting a personal perogative. This observation is elicited by the renewal during the past year of the efforts on the part of some person in this city to induce Congress to take the oversight and management of the hospital out of the hands of the Department of the Interior and place this authority in the hands of an incorporated body of private citizens, acting on their own responsibility. They offer to the government no relief from the duty of providing all the funds necessary to run the hospital, but they are ready to take charge of affairs, including the government funds, and set up a sort of autocracy of their own."

Dr. Williams has given the Secretary of the Interior to understand that Drs. Shadd, Purvis, Williston, Watts, and indeed every colored physician who favored placing the hospital under an incorporated body, were irresponsible parties, who suggested no relief, but a set of autocrats who wanted the institution incorporated and they use the government funds. Dr. Williams further says:

"A higher class of colored people are recieved as patients in the hospital now, who were heretofore refrained from applying on account of improvements in the facilities and methods."

This means that the former management of the hospital was bad. Whether Dr. Williams refers to the late Dr Palmer or Dr. Purvis, The BEE is unable to state. He also says:

"As much as $8,000 could have been collected from patients' and therefore recommends that some provision be made for pay patients."

He gives the Secretary to understand that when an attempt was made to incorporate the institution, the promoters used neither "reason" nor "logic." This speaks bad for the great number of colored physicians in the city who claims to have so much sense, that not one used any reason or logic when a recommendation was made to Congress to incorporate the hospital.

President McKinley may not give every negro an office, but he will do his duty towards the race.

The death of Charles A. Dana removes the the most brilliant editor of modern times from the field of journalism.

If Maryland goes republican the independent colored vote will be given a sugar tit.

Rev. J. Anderson Taylor said a few days ago that the Baptist ministers Union never did denounce the new school trustees.

He. Mollie, has a great deal to learn.

Editor Fortune, of the New York Age, will be convinced one of these days that good leaders ip means stability and consistency.

It is an aphorism too true, "he laughs best who laughs last."

Ohio is not in doubt.

Miss Merritt is a lady of refinement, and no social clique can deny it.

HE WAS IN NEED.

E. E. Cooper and his democratic correspondent at the Government Printing Office, will please read the opinion of the press as to that $800 job. The BEE is doing well, it thanks you, and too well to accept an $800-dollar job. The BEE is made of sterner stuff.

[From the New York Age.]

E. E. Cooper, editor of the Washington Colored American, who wanted to be Register of the Treasury, has been paid off for his treachery to his race with an $800 job.

[From the Leavenworth Herald.]

"Mr. E. E. Cooper, editor of the Colored American, has been appointed assistant street inspector, at $800 per annum, or $66 75 per month," says the WASHINGTON BEE. This is not quite as lucrative a job as Register of the Treasury, but it beats nothing all hollow. The clamor of the influential negro press for recognition for its members has at last reached the ears of the powers that be.

WHAT I SAW AND HEARD.

Mrs. Terrell magnifies her position. She will be struck by a cyclone one of these days.

He Mollie was heard to remark that the Editors opposition to her was personal Well, just wait and see and He Mollie will be convinced that he is not the only sand on the beach.

Col. James Hill, who was going to run the south, and, indeed, the entire United States will find out that it will take all of his time to register the moneys he received.

If the republican party wants to win in 1900, it must repeal the civil service law.

Judge Kimball, of the Police Court, is making a hard fight, but he will find out that he cannot win. He must retire with his term of office.

Justice John C. O'Donnell's friends feel quite sanguine that he will win the judgeship of the Police court. We don't want any man on the bench who is controlled by the prosecuting attorney, or before he gives his decision, asks the prosecuting attorney how much fine he must impose.

The President will retire the registrar of wills, Mr. McGill, He is a very fine gentleman, and a very popular man.

The combination that was formed against Dr. Williams did'nt work. The whole business will be exposed in court in a few days. Mr. West, who is being urged for surgeon in chief of the Freedmen's Hospital, had better take a rest. THE BEE knows that he is a good Catholic, but the American people are not ready for the hospital to be turned over to politicians at present. Dr. West is too young, and, indeed, he has not had the experience to run a hospital. The people are for Dr. Francis if a change is to be made in that institution. THE BEE will see that fair play is had, if nothing else.

Yes, some one wishes to be superintendent of the public schools, but, at present, no change will be made. What is mostly needed is a change in the High School. If Mr. Bruce cannot make the change, he ought to give some one else an opportunity. There should be a reorganization of the schools. We are greatly in need of a change in the schools.

The cooking teachers' fight is the most interesting feature in the school controversy.

N. H. H. Hart, professor in criminal law at the Howard University law school, has been dismissed from the Library of Congress. This is somewhat a surprise, as Mr. Hart was one of the most efficient men in the Library. The new librarian has received no instructions to retain negroes or to appoint them. Nothing should disappoint office seekers at this time. Only the worthy can see light.

It is rumored that the recorder of deeds, who has been endeavoring to aid all worthy persons, will be compelled to reduce his force. He is now overcrowded, and it is a matter of impossibility for him to run the office with his present overcrowded force.

The colored democrats in office, and especially in the government printing office, should be made to take a back seat. They are filling the places that were once held by worthy colored republicans. The colored republicans had a hard time when negro democrats had the power to remove colored republicans from office. The negro democrats are being fed while colored republicans are starving to death.

ROUNDER.

SAMUEL COOPER MILLS.

The subject of this sketch is Hon. Samuel Cooper Mills a justice of the peace, and one of the acting judges of the police court. He was born in the city of Washington about sixty years ago. He was first appointed justice of the peace by Ex-President Andrew Johnson in the year of 1869, and has served continuously under all the administrations to the present time.

He was first appointed acting judge of the police court in 1872, and has made a record for fair dealings which is highly appreciated by all who may have had the misfortune or fortune to come before him.

He is the founder of the order of the Sons of Jonadab, which organization has exerted a great deal of influence on those who have strayed from the path of temperance.

He enlisted in the regular army September, 1864, and was promoted to hospital steward, and remained to the end of the war, and in August, 1865, was honorably discharged. He is also a member of Lincoln Post, Grand Army of the Republic; was judge advocate of the Department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic, under General Burdett's command; honorary member of the Old Guard, and was chief of staff of that organization for two or three years.

The most memorable act of Judge Mills, that will go down to posterity, was his decision in the celebrated civil rights case, when popular sentiment was prejudiced to the decision that he rendered in that case.

He is a dignified judge on the bench and a positive character in the dispensation of the law. He is never influenced by popular clamor or public sentiment when he believes that he is right. He is one of the few men on the bench who is not always influenced by the testimony of one officer, which has been so prevalent in some of the courts. He is one of the few men who doesn't believe that it requires a lawyer to possess influence to win a case before him, nor is he influenced by men who may have authority to prosecute. When he presides, he is the judge.

He has a good conception of human nature, and his positive character and other excellent traits are but few of the strong elements in him that tend to make him what he is.

His record as a soldier, his aim to reform mankind and direct them to the true and righteous path of life, may make him objectionable to those who commit crimes and other offenses.

If it is the intention of the administration, should it be the intention of Judge Miller to resign, to appoint a democrat to succed him, no better man could be selected than Judge Samuel Cooper Mills.

JACOBS VS. COOK.

THE WHITE COOKING DIRECTRESS DEMANDS THE COLORED COOKING TEACHER TO CONFER WITH HER.

It is reported that Miss Jacobs, the white cooking teacher in the public schools, who has as much as she can attend to, has requested Miss Cook, the colored directress of cooking in the colored schools to confer with her in the preparation of the questions for the colored schools.

Just what right Miss Cook has to confer with Miss Jacobs, the BEE is unable to state. The BEE will give the inside history of the other examination when it becomes necessary, and perhaps the people will see the absolute necessity of a change in the school board. The part Mrs Trustee Terrell has played in this affair is amusing if nothing else. Mrs. Terrell informed Miss Freeman that she had her support for the cooking school, and all she had to do was to see the other trustee. After Miss Freeman saw the other trustee and was assured that she should have his support, Mrs. Terrell in the meantime had sent Miss Wilder to the other trustee and informed him that she had gotten the support of Mrs. Terrell; that she had been preparing herself for the place at the suggestion of Mrs. Terrell, and all that was necessary for her to do was to obtain his support.

The other trustee did not know what to make of the statement made by Miss Wilder to the effect that she had been assured by Mrs. Terrell, in July, that she was to receive the appointment, and at the same time Miss Freeman had been sent, by Mrs. Terrell, to the other trustee, and she informed him that Mrs. Terrell said that she would appoint her if the other trustee consented. It now turns out that Miss Wilder had been receiving instructions from Miss Jacobs, the white directress of cooking, and making other arrangements to be appointed. Mr. Wilder, her father, formerly a postmaster in South Carolina, had also made a campaign for his daughter, and with much success.

Commissioner Ross may be requested to settle this strange action of Mrs. Terrell. Her removal from the school board is an absolute necessity.

ALLISON IN THE LEAD.

THE CIVIL SERVICE AGAINST THE PRESIDENT.

The National Republican Anti-Civil Service League held an unusually well-attended and spirited meeting at Emrich's Hotel last Wednesday night. The proceedings opened with the reading of a number of letters received during the past week. A noticeable feature of these letters was the statement of the writers of their preference for Senator Allison as a candidate for the Presidential nomination in 1900. All wanted to know how Mr. Allison stands on the civil service question, and Secretary Lester stated that he is in a position to declare that the Senator is opposed to the civil service system as now administered. Many of the letters were from North Carolina, Tennessee, and other Southern States.

Hon. Henry M. Baker, ex-Congressman from New Hampshire and Vice President of the league, addressed the meeting. He said he did not believe there was any authority in the civil service law for the action of President McKinley in extending its operation. Maryland, Mr. Baker said, was the field to which the league should direct all its present efforts. The approaching election, with the submission to popular vote of a civil service amendment to the constitution of that State, offered an opportunity for the people to show how strongly the voters are opposed to the system.

W. O. Thomas, editor of the Dayton (Tenn.) Republican, addressed the meeting, and made a telling speech that was frequently interrupted by applause. Candidates for Congress, he said, must be taught to remember that they owe their place to the voters, and the voters are against civil service, and no man who is for it should receive the nomination for any public office.

F. P. Lewis, of Connecticut, offered a series of resolutions, directed to the Republican voters of the United States, calling upon them to unite in an effort to secure the repeal of the civil service law, which were referred to the committee on resolutions.

M. T. West, of Tennessee, offered some humorous resolutions, which were received with unanimous and uproarious approval, and referred to the committee on resolutions.

C. H. Ellis, Treasurer of the league, who has lately returned from a trip to Maine, stated that he has yet to meet a voter in that State who is not opposed to the civil service system. He believed that no man will be nominated for the Presidency in 1900 who is not an avowed opponent of civil service, and if such a man be nominated, no matter by what party, he believed he would be defeated To their action in fostering the civil service system, Mr. Ellis attributed the defeat of Harrison and Cleveland If Mr. Hanna is beaten in Ohio, said the speaker, it will be because he has not been a hearty and outspoken enemy of the present system of filling offices

The meeting adjourned at the close of Mr. Ellis' remarks, to meet again next Wednesday evening.

OPENING OF THE BETHEL LITERARY.

On Tuesday evening, the 26th, at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, M street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets n. w., Mrs. Fannie Jackson Coppin, of Philadelphia, will open the seventeenth season of lectures and discussions of the Bethel Literary and Historical Association, with an address on "The Duty of the Hour." Mrs. Coppin is one of the best known women of the race, as well as one of the most talented and useful. The Bethel Literary is to be congratulated on securing so able and worthy an orator for its opening occasion.

Mr. L. M. Hershaw, who enters upon his second term as president of the association, has the confidence and respect of the literary people of the community, and will provide good things for those who atted.

DR. WILLIAMS' SUCCESS.

Dr. Daniel Williams, the Surgeon in-chief of Freedmen's Hospital, successfully performed the difficult operation know as the Caesarian section Sunday morning. This is the second operation of this character performed by Dr. Williams during the past few months The first operation, as reported at the time, occurred in the latter part of June. Both the mother and child was reported to be well and hearty

The subject of the operation Sunday was Mrs. Annie Watson, colored, aged thirty-three years. Mrs. Watson is the mother of two children. She was recently received at the hospital for treatment for a tumor, Dr. Williams upon examination, decided that the double operation was necessary, and that it must be performed without delay. At 10:20 the patient was placed under an anaesthetic and twenty minutes later the operation was begun. At 1:55 a well-formed female child was removed alive.

The operation lasted over two hours and was witnessed by several members of the medical fraternity. The Caesarian section has always been regarded as one the most difficult operations in which to obtain successful results. So far as is known the two operations by Dr. Williams are the only ones ever performed in Washington in which the mother and child both survived.

There is no doubt but that Dr. Williams is one of the most successfull surgeons in this country.

"THE BLOW ALMOST KILLED FATHER."

What the BEE meant when it said that the society was opposed to Miss Merritt's appointment, was that portion of a social clique that would like to run the schools under a cloud and always put their social pets in. There was a discussion had of the appointment, on Eleventh street, by a few of this social ring, and Miss Lucy Moten was the only lady present who defended the appointment.

The friends of Miss Cook had been working her appointment a long time, and the BEE knows how everything was cut and dried to place Miss Cook in. The defeat of Miss Cook was a "blow that almost killed father."

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

HARDSHIP ON CHILDREN.

Editor of the BEE:

As the columns in your paper appears to be open for the discussion of the management of our colored public schools, and the many discriminations, etc., I desire to call attention to the newly-appointed school trustees the injustice to the parents of children attending schools west of Rock Creek, where there are two school buildings, the Wormley and Phillips respectively, with about eight or nine hundred children attending. These schools are graded from the first to the seventh grade only, which is a great injustice and hardship to the pupils promoted to the eighth grade, compelling them to walk from three to four miles daily to attend the eighth grade school. There can be no reasonable excuse for not having an eighth grade school in Georgetown, as the record will show that there are from twenty to thirty pupils yearly transferred to the eighth grade. Therefore, we would ask these honorable gentlemen to see to it that we obtain an eighth grade school west of Rock Creek.

Respectfully, J. L. T.

MR. W. A. TURK.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 20—The American Association of General Passenger Agents, now in session here with delegates present, representing the principal railway systems of the United States, Canada, and Mexico, has adopted resolutions calling attention to the necessity for State and national legislation against the ticket-scalping evil. State legislatures that have not already done so, are urged to adopt laws confining the sale of tickets to the properly authorized agents of the transportation companies, and at the same time that will require, under suitable penalties, the redemption of every ticket or part of ticket that may not be used. Congress is also requested to pass the so-called "anti-scalping" bills now before that body.

The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: W. A. Turk, of the Southern road, President; Charles S. Fee, of the Northern Pacific, Vice-President, and Mr. Smith re-elected Secretary

President Turk announced the following executive committee for the next term: Mr. Sebastian, of the Rock Island, chairman; Messrs. Lee, of Philadelphia; De Haven, of Grand Rapids; D. L. Edwards, of Cincinnati; C. P Atmore, of Louisville; Kendall, of Boston; Nicholson, of St. Louis.

Resolutions of regret were passed upon the recent deaths of B W. Thatcher, of the Mexican Central Railroad, and C. C. Hancock, of the Philadelphia & Reading The following cities were placed in nomination for the place to hold the next meeting: Detroit, Halifax, Chicago, Omaha, Columbus, and New York. Detroit was chosen on the first ballot.

THE HIGH SCHOOL CADETS.

The announcement of the cadet officers of the ninth and tenth divisions of tue High School was made this week in the drill hall, on M street, between First street and New Jersey avenue. These divisions comprise the colored school, in which there will be three full companies during the coming scholastic vear.

The examinations were held by the military committee, consisting of Prof. Montgomery and Capt. Arthur Brooks, two weeks ago, but the candidates all passed such creditable examinations that the marks were very close, and considerable time was necessary in order to determine the winners. It was the original intention of the committee to announce the new officers Friday of last week; but the companies had been dismissed before successful candidates had been determined.

Those who will wear the shoulder straps and chevrons are:

ALEXANDRIA NEWS.

The efforts of our ministers on last Sunday to make earnest appeal to the intelligent, moral and christian citizens respecting Sunday observances should be encouraged by every one, as theSabbath is the great day and all-per-vading means of giving efficacy to moral government and holds a relation to general morality similar to that which the marriage institution holds to social purity. It was assigned and is adjusted to lead people steadily to rest from business cares, and amusements, to contemplate Jehovah as the Creator, preserver, redeemer, benefactor owner, governor, judge and disposer of men, to keep alive and render practically efficacious the knowledge of the one only living and true God, to lead all to worship and adorn Him, thus to experience the benefit of His infinately wise, universal and benevolent reign. Hence the reason which He gave to His Ancient people why they should keep it. "That ye may know that I am Jehovah." Had all men properly kept the Sabbath all would have known Jehovah and worship Him from the creation of the world to the predent time and idolatry never would have been practiced on earth. In conclusion we sincerely hope that all the people will very carefully loan their assistance to our clerical lights in their efforts to bring about closer observance of the Seventh day, believing as we do, that it should be kept holy.

Hon. John Andrew Seaton accompanied by Mrs. Seaton, arrived here Saturday evening looking well

Mrs. Magnus L. Robinson has returned home after a very pleasant visit to Cumberland, Md.

Mr. Paris Simms, an old and respected citizen of this city, continues ill at his home.

Rev. Alexander Truatt of the First Baptist church, has been suffering from the effects of the chills, the Rev. says he has not been trobled with the chills before for 15 years.

Washington people were very numerous here Sunday and we have every reason to believe from their appearance that Saks, Hahn and others were closely consulted on fall styles very recently.

Dr. Childs and Mrs. Childs was in the city Sunday.

The Monumental Orchestra of Washington, D. C., was banqueted by the Fern Leaf Social club, Friday evening at the home of this organization, also given an Oyster Roast of ye olden time, together with a number of their friends from the executive city, among whom were Messrs. Ottoway Holmes, Coats and Travis, all of whom may be expected at the coming grand entertainment, November 1st.

Mr. William Douglass an old resident of this city, died at the Infirmary Saturday morning. Mr. Douglass was very well known in this and Washington cities, he was at one time in Alexandria, what Frederick Douglass was in Anacostia. He was the venerable father of Mr. Fairfax Douglass of this city, also Mrs. N. B. Pinn, from whose residence the funeral took place Sunday and was largely attended by the friends of the family of the deceased. Rev. W. H. Gaines, officiated. "May he rest in peace."

The residence of Mrs. Nellie Davis was visited by fourteen cousins of this lady, Monday morning, all of whom were happily greeted and dined.

Capt. Daniel W. Chinn the efficient head waiter of the Higea, is home on a visit, the captain is said to be suffering with a severe cold.

The Daughters of Union, an organization of sixty-three years in this city, and composed of the oldest citizens of this place, attended Roberts Chape in a body last Sunday evening and heard an able sermon by the pastor, after which they requested a collection and raised $17, which they cheerfully handed over to the Excelsior club to aid them in paying for the new pews. The Daughters of Union, in their antique uniform or dress looked handsome, while some of the maids looked very elderly, yet some of the elderly mothers looked as though they were sweet sixteen.

Mr. and Mrs. James Seals are in the city looking well, while here they changed their residence from Franklin to North Payne street.

There were several of the silk and cider element who went to Arlington Monday evening to an entertainment. Of course, its useless to say that Arlington with all the dead soldiers had a burden.

Mr. John A. Seaton, contemplates spending the winter in one of his handsome residences in this city.

'Held by the enemy' is the by word of our poverty-striken element.

One of the "400" told The BEE man a few days ago, that colored sentiment amounts to nothing, of course he in his mind classed all others with himself and if he did, we agree.

Mr. M. L. Robinson, has been indorsed for the collectorship of Alexandria, by colored republicans. We wonder if Mr. Park Agnew will, and should he (Agnew) fail, Wickham and McCaul will from the fact that the meeting indorsed the national administration, Park Agnew, Pat McCaul, W. C. Wickham and every lady and everything indorsable. Of course this was a double end, two edged sword, and as liable to cut the faction that hurdles in, as the avowed enemy.

John B. Davis, the son of Mr. W. H. Davis is very ill of fever at 631 South St. Asaph street.

Several of the friends in this city of I. Newton Tancil of 2316 H street n.w. Washington, D. C., called to see him recently. He is reported at this writing much improved.

The Douglass Monument Association will apply for a charter at an early date.

Mr. John D. Taylor, respectable citizen of this city, a prominent member of the First Baptist church, this city, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Molly Hawkins in Washington, D C., a few days ago, and was buried from his church Monday morning. Rev. Alexander Truatt officiating in his plain and impressive manner.

THE GREATEST RIDE IN HISTORY.

A territory of 271,000 square miles, comprising Washington, Idaho and Oregon as they are to-day, was saved to the Union by one man. He had the courage and heroism to ride on muleback for three thousand miles. The ride was thrilling, the trials and hardships marvelous, the result a glorious one. The whole story, beautifully illustrated, will be given in the November issue of The Ladies' Home Journal, under the title, "When Dr Whitman Added Three Stars to Our Flag," the closing and most intensely interesting article in the Journal's successful series of "Great Personal Events." The first women to cross the Rockies figure in the story, which proves beyond a doubt that they had preceded Fremont, the "Pathfinder," by six years.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING DINNER.

The first Thanksgiving dinner was celebrated in this country two hundred and seventy-six years ago, at Plymouth, Massachusetts. The whole American army was present—it numbered twenty men. Miles Standish, the backward lover of Priscilla, sat at the feast, while Priscilla served at the tables. The story will appear in the November issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. Here Indians and whites sat down together by the tables set in the woods, and enjoyed the roast turkey, beechnuts, clam chowder, fish, salad, cakes, fruit and other delicacies provided. It was at this historic dinner that the first oysters were served The illustrations of the article show portraits of the Pilgrim fathers.

THE BOOK OF THE ROYAL BLUE.

The "Book of the Royal Blue," issued by the Passenger Department of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R., has made its initial appearance with the October number, and is, undoubtedly, the most creditable magazine of its nature published. Aside from being a model example of modern typography, it is most interesting as to its contents. A field for interesting literature is certainly offered by the Baltimore and Ohio R. R., because it is the oldest railway in the United States; is foremost in historical prominence, and is rich in magnificent scenery. The latter especially affords an endless scope for illustrations, and the magazine has started on its venture with all these points full in hand.

Idle people are usually the most unhappy. There is no use of possessing a busy mind, except your hands work accordingly.

Bicyclist:—Wheel riding, like most amusements, is innocent, and I think, to a certain extent, it improves the health. Of course harm can be made of anything. Ladies on wheels should always wear bloomers or dark underwear. Skirts should be about the length of a girl of sixteen, to the ordinary shoe tops, even though the bicycle boot may be worn.

J. P. No honest person will commit himself for money. Friendship and love is something money cannot buy. Although there are exceptions to this rule.

W. C.—You should not abuse a person and then associate with him. It shows deception on your part.

Sensible people forgive misdemeanors, but rarely forget them. If you are once bitten by a dog, you should watch him.

Religion:—While at church on Sunday, don't go to the table to contribute ten cents, when you can just as easy put the same in the basket when the ushers come around. It looks like you want to be seen.

The first person to get happy in church, is usually the most ill tempered and disagreeble.

Cora:—Don't act like other people, but act like yourself. Pretense is something a person cannot hide.

Never feel that you are slighted, especially when you know you are the person's superior who intended the slight.

Unice:—I agree with you when you say, that the girl who ignores her parents when prosperity begins to show up in her favor comes to no good end. She may for a time succeed, but adversity is sure to overtake her.

Edna:—Oh, yes dress a monkey in a fine suit of clothes and he still looks to be and is the same monkey. The same rule applies to some people. You cannot judge a person by fine looks or his position.

Complexion:—It is very silly for people to be always gnawing on the color line, when these same people, would not marry, or would not be caught in company with a person darker than themselves. My dark beauties are oftener seen with their lighter sisters than they are with the darker ones and the most gallant dark gentlemen are usually seen with the lighter Misses and more often marry the same; just where the prejudice comes in I am unable to state. In my estimation, it is more a case of jealousy than anything else, for I am sure no one in this enlightened day is trying to get darker or even curl their hair, but just to the contrary.

Inquirer:—In the public schools today, there are three light brown or dark teachers, to every very light one. Mulattoes are persons who have either a white father or white mother. You should have first heard both sides before expressing yourself.

Elis:—There is nothing that makes me more provoked than to hear a man speak ill of a woman to her own sex, it is quite disgusting for men to discuss women in a lude way, but when it comes to a woman listening to a miserable tale, about her weaker sister, it is unbearable and such a woman or women should be thrown among these vipers of good morals to die the same miserable death that awaits them. A man who is always looking for "ladies," is a deep dyed demon and only seeks their degradation and shame.

S. A.—Reading makes a full woman, hence you should not neglect reading original books, choice literature and the daily and weekly papers. Cultivate your mind and you will have an air of cultivation.

The person who scorns the humble oft-times gets in return the scorn from the humblest.

People are anxious to advance their own motives should read the following:

"He who is thy friend indeed,
He will help thee in thy need;
Thus of every grief in heart;
He with thee doth bear a part.
These are certain signs to know,
Faithful friend from flattering foe."

Some people forget a friend until they need his help. Such remembrances are falsifying and corrupt.

Lizzie:—Grumble not at what you can help, but remove the cause.

P. X.—If you have nothing and your intended has nothing it is best not to wed. Nothing and nothing make nothing and nothing wont chew like bread and meat.

A wife's duties are at home and the husband's away from home, hence one gets tired being indoors and the other gets tired being out of doors. A wise way would be for the husband, though tired, to go out sometimes with his wife and the woman though tired, remain in sometimes with her husband. Without this, they will certainly not agree.

Hairoline, to prevent the hair from falling out. Only 25 cents per bottle, 205 O street, n. w.

Economy:—Wanamaker, the millionaire, first salary was $1 25 a week.

Envelopes were first used in 1839 and the first steel pen was made in 1830.

Lena:—Small nails indicate littleness of mind, obstinacy and conceit. Lovers of knowledge and liberal sentiments have round nails.

SECRET ORDERS

EDITORIAL SYNOPSIS.

When a bull gets into a china store or a lady's bouduoir, his first inclination is to smash things generally. The same can be said of incompetent men in charge of secret orders when they are unable to rule: they try to break up. A man who aspires to be a teacher should understand his business, so that when he makes moves there will be no after clips. In this day and time ignorance will never predominate over intelligence—we can safely bet on it. Whenever such parties get into power, the sooner they are voted out at the proper time the quicker the order will prosper Such men are detrimental in every particular. Kickers are no earthly good—under any circumstances. We rest here.

COLORED SHRINERS IN THE LEAD.

JOHN G. JONES, 33°, IS DECLARED TO BE THE FIRST AND ONLY MASON IN THE UNITED STATES TO HAVE THE LEGAL POWER AND AUTHORITY TO DO THE MYSTIC SHRINE WORK.

Within the past two weeks a large number of the white shriners and masons in other departments of free masonry have been in a state of consternation in this city, and masonic circles in all of the departments of the craft have been stirred up to the highest pitch. It now has leaked out and turns out to be true, and the white shriners say that it is true, and they must acknowledge the same, for there is no way of getting out of it, for John G. Jones, 33rd°, of this city, who is Imperial Grand Potentate for the colored shriners in the United States, and who is also the Sovereign Grand Commander of the United Supreme Council Grand Orient at Washington, D. C., and who is a prominent lawyer of the Chicago bar, and a leading man among his people, was the first and only mason in the United States to have a patent of power and authority to confer this sublime degree of the mystic shrine. Brother jones got his patent of power from the Grand Council of Arabia, which is the fountain head of the mystic shrine, and the degree was conferred upon him by a Turk named Rofelt Pasha, a deputy from the Grand Council of Arabia in 1893, at Chicago, and assisted by others at the Masonic Hall with imposing ceremonies, and while the secret work of the mystic shrine of colored shriners is just exactly the same that is used by the white shriners, the difference is about the legality of those entitled to do the work.

William J. Florence, 33rd, a prominent white mason of New York City, got the mystic shrine work while he was on a visit to Arabia and brought it to America, and placed it in the hands of Dr. Walter M. Fleming, 33rd, another distinguished white mason in New York City, and in 1871 the mystic Shrine degree was conferred on several prominent white masons; June 6th, 1875, Mecca Temple was established, but the trouble now is that William J Florence and Dr. Fleming and not one of the white shriners in this country ever had any power or patent from the Grand Council of Arabia to do any work in the United States. Brother Jones last week presented his patent from the Grand Council of Arabia to a committee of white shriners, and they declared it to be genuine and legal, and the white shriners were called upon to produce their patent of power and authority, and they could not, as they did not have any. This puts Brother Jones, a colored mason, to the front as being the first and only legitimate shriner with power and authority to do the work in the United States.

J. Slaughter, First Captain of Guard, Miss Della Barnes, Second Captain of Guard, Mrs Hattie Williams, Third Captain of the Guard, Miss Alice Pollard, Guardian.

After the installation of officers, a banquet was served at the residence of Noble Charles Washington, and speeches were made by Rev. S. McDowel, Mrs. Gertrude Alexander, Mrs. Alice Vedder, Noble John G. Jones, Mrs. Della Barnes, and several others, and a grand time was had, and all expressed themselves as highly pleased with the work. Mrs Alice F. Vedder,, who is the Worthy Grand Matron of Palestine Court, is a lady of high scholarly attainment, and a graduate from one of the leading educational institutions in the State, and is a leader among the people of Rockford, Ill.; she is identified with several enterprises for the betterment and improving the condition of the colored people in this State. This court is composed of wives, sisters and daughters ofprominent colored masons of that city. This sublime and honorable order is spreading rapidly all over the whole country. The WASHINGTON BEE was adopted as the official organ of the Palestine Court.
